

I feel as a licensed amateur radio operator and member of our local emergency radio organization that the BPL issue if approved would greatly impact on the operations of my station adversely and is of no benefit to anyone but the major power companies and their subsidiaries to make more impact on the electronics consumers this would also hamper some of our emergency services which operate on the 6 meter band of frequencies for their communications.